

NIE Online Registration System

To access the online registration system - go to www.nie.co.uk

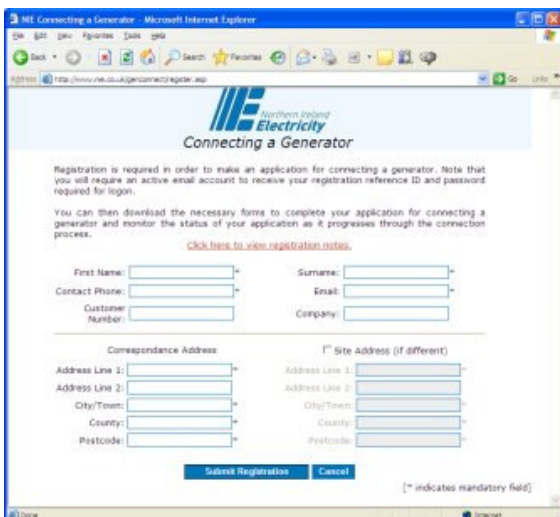

Under the heading ELECTRICITY SUPPLY select Connecting A Generator

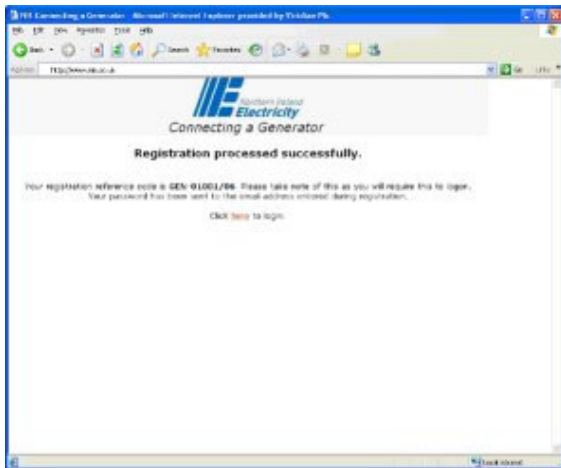

To register click here

Enter your details on the form and submit to register

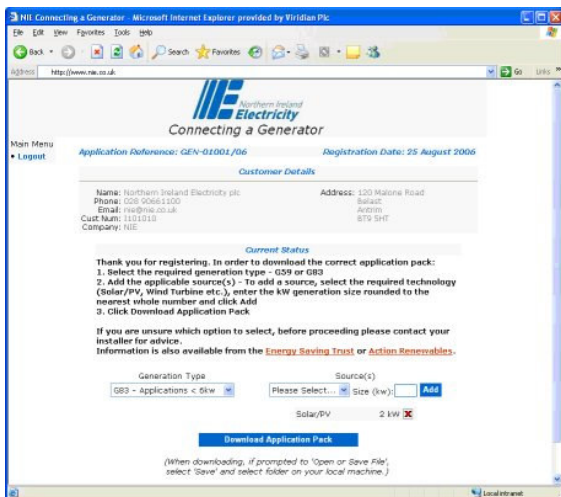

On submission your registration reference code will be displayed

Please record your registration reference code here

The system automatically creates a password and emails it to the address entered at registration. Please record your password here

Log on and complete your registration

Generation Type

- Engineering Recommendation G83 – 6kW or less
- Engineering Recommendation G59 – Above 6kW

Source(s) (Repeat for each technology type)

- Select the technology that you are using i.e. Solar, Wind, Hydro etc
- Enter the size of your proposed scheme rounded to the nearest whole number
- Click Add

Download

- Download the application pack for your project

You have now completed the registration process and your installer will be able to assist you with completing the necessary forms in the application pack.

Please note that you can log onto the system and check how your job is progressing. If you have any queries please contact NIE at <mailto:distributiongeneration@nie.co.uk>